SEC Series Notes

Texas A&M (3-3) at Alabama (2-4)

Alabama's sweep over Texas A&M in 2021 ended a five series win streak by the Aggies over the Crimson Tide. Texas A&M has won the last three series in Tuscaloosa since Alabama won a weather-shortened series in 2013, 2-0. Three of the last four series have been sweeps with the aforementioned Alabama sweep in 2021 and back-to-back Texas A&M sweeps in 2017-18. The series is close with the Aggies holding a 13-10 edge in games played, thanks to a 2-1 lead in series sweeps.

Texas A&M snapped a five-series SEC road losing streak by winning its opening series at LSU. The Aggies are seeking back-to-back conference road series wins for the first time since winning three straight during the 2017 season. A series win will put Texas A&M above .500 following three weeks of conference play for the second time in the last six seasons.

Alabama is 2-2 in its last four SEC home series dating back to last season. A series sweep would put the Crimson Tide above .500 after three weeks of conference play for the first time since 2016.

Mississippi State (3-3) at Arkansas (5-1)

In what goes down as series oddities among all SEC teams is the fact that the last five series have resulted in sweeps for both Arkansas (3) and Mississippi State (2). The Razorbacks have swept the last two series and again in 2017, while the Bulldogs own sweeps in 2016 and 2018. In fact, 10 of the 29 previous series have resulted in sweeps with Arkansas posting six and MSU notching four. The Bulldogs, however, hold a 15-14 edge in series victories, but the Razorbacks lead 44-41 in regular-season games played.

Mississippi State has played well on the road, going 8-3 in its last 11 SEC road series. A series victory puts the Bulldogs above .500 in conference play after three weeks of action for the fifth time in the last six seasons.

Arkansas has won 12 consecutive SEC series and is chasing the record of 15 shared by Florida (2017-18) and Vanderbilt (2012-14). The Razorbacks have also won their last nine conference home series, including two straight sweeps and seven consecutive game victories. They won eight straight SEC home games during the 2019 campaign.

Auburn (3-3) at LSU (3-3)

LSU has won seven of the last eight series, with three sweeps in that span (2013, 2104, 2016). LSU has won its last four home series against Auburn. Auburn last won a series in Baton Rouge in 2011 and hasn't swept LSU since accomplishing the feat at the old Alex Box Stadium in 1988.

Auburn has won its last three SEC road series dating back to last season. The last time the Tigers opened a season with two conference road series victories was 2009 at Tennessee and Mississippi State.

Uncharacteristically, LSU is 1-5 in its last six SEC home series dating back to last season. Between 2008-19, the Tigers were 47-12-1 (79%) in conference home series. A series victory puts LSU above .500 for the fourth time in the last five years following three weeks of league action.

Florida (3-3) at Georgia (3-3)

Florida has won six of the last seven and 12 of the last 14 series over Georgia. The Bulldogs swept the Gators on their last trip to Athens in 2019. Georgia's only other series victory since 2007 also came in Athens in 2013. Since 1992, Florida owns a 23-6 series lead, including 10 sweeps. However, three of UGA's six series victories in that span were sweeps by the Bulldogs.

After going 8-2 in SEC road series in 2017-18, Florida is 4-7 in its last 11 conference road trips. However, the Gators seem to have turned the corner with three league road series victories in their last four. A series win puts Florida above .500 after three weeks of conference play for the seventh time in the last eight seasons.

Georgia has matched its SEC home series win total from last season with a victory over

Mississippi State to begin league play. The Bulldogs are seeking back-to-back SEC home series triumphs for the first time since winning seven straight from 2018-19. A series win puts Georgia above .500 after three weeks of conference play for the third time in the last four seasons.

Ole Miss (2-4) at Kentucky (2-4)

These teams are meeting for the fourth time in the last seven seasons after playing 19 times in 21 years between 1994-2014. After Ole Miss posted back-to-back sweeps in 2014 and 2016, Kentucky has bounced back to win the last two series in 2017 and 2019. It's been a tight series since 1994 with the Rebels holding an 11-10-1 series advantage. Seven of those 11 series wins are sweeps which led to a 38-27 lead in regular-season games played in that span.

Ole Miss is seeking its third straight SEC road series win after dispatching Auburn to start the season and Georgia to end the 2021 campaign. A series win will match their road series win total each of the previous three seasons at two. The Rebels haven't won three SEC road series since 2014.

Kentucky looks to carry its momentum from a series win over Georgia last weekend and win three conference games in a row for the first time since sweeping Auburn in week two last season. The Wildcats haven't won back-to-back SEC home series since 2018 when it defeated Missouri and Mississippi State in weeks 7 and 9.

South Carolina (2-4) at Missouri (1-5)

The last seven series meetings have resulted in alternating series victories with the home team winning on each occasion since 2014. The Gamecocks hold a 5-3 series lead since 2013, but the Tigers have won the last three series played in Missouri, including a sweep in 2019. South Carolina swept three of the first six series.

South Carolina rebounded to win its series at Vanderbilt last weekend. Its last three road series have resulted in sweeps: two by the opposition and one by the Gamecocks. A series sweep will put South Carolina above .500 after three weeks of league action for the seventh time in the last nine seasons.

Missouri has dropped its last three SEC series and is 1-8 in its last nine dating back to last season. After winning their first four home conference series in 2019, the Tigers are 1-6 since having lost their last four.

Tennessee (6-0) at Vanderbilt (4-2)

Vanderbilt has won the last three series, matching its longest series winning streak over Tennessee since 1992. The last seven series have been close with the Commodores holding an 11-9 edge in games played and a 4-2-1 series advantage. Vanderbilt is 12-5-1 in the last 18 series played following Tennessee's 8-3 advantage in the previous 11. The Commodores have not lost their last five home series (4-0-1) against Tennessee since the Vols swept Vanderbilt in Nashville in 2009.

Tennessee owns the longest active SEC road series win streak at seven and has won its last seven conference games dating back to 2021. It is UT's longest SEC winning streak since posting a school record 17 consecutive wins in 1994, when it won 21 of 22 at one point. The Vols have two SEC road sweeps in their last three trips on enemy turf. They had one in their previous 76 SEC road series.

Vanderbilt has won its last four SEC home series, including sweeping Missouri to begin the 2022 campaign. Since 2016, the Commodores are 21-4-1 in home SEC series, including a 5-0 mark in 2019. Vanderbilt has dropped its last two SEC games and hasn't lost three straight conference games since a four-game losing streak near the end of the 2018 season.

The two division champions shall be automatically seeded number one and number two based on winning percentage in conference competition. The rest shall be seeded numbers three through 12 based on winning percentage without regard to division. Ties will be broken in the following manner:

1. Two-Team Tie: The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:
 - A. Won-lost results of head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
 - B. If two-teams are divisional opponents:
 - (1) Won-lost percentage within their division (over the 18-game SEC division schedule).
 - (2) Won-lost percentage of the two teams versus the No. 1 team in their division (and proceeding through the No. 7 team, if necessary).
 - C. If two teams are not divisional opponents:
 - (1) Won-lost record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed using common opponents only (and proceeding through the No. 12 seed, if necessary).
 - (2) Coin flip by the Commissioner
2. Three-Team Tie (or more). The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken: (Note: If the three tied teams have three different records against each other, they shall be seeded in best-percentage order.) Otherwise, once the tie has been reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker procedure will be used.
 - A. If all three teams are common opponents: Total won-lost percentage of games played among the tied teams.
 - B. Won-lost percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 12 seed, if necessary, using common opponents only.
 - C. If three or more teams still are tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw.
