#3 ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS | 0-0, 0-0 SEC

Head Coach: Dave Van Horn (Arkansas, '88)
Record at Arkansas: 839-441 (22nd Season)
Career Record: 1,424-681 (36th Season)

JAMES MADISON DUKES | 0-0, 0-0 SUN BELT

Head Coach: Marlin Ikenberry (VMI, '95)
Record at JMU: 184-184 (Ninth Season)
Career Record: 466-491-1 (20th Season)

SCOUTING THE RAZORBACKS

- The preseason favorites to win the SEC by receiving nine first-place votes, Arkansas is coming off a season where it went 43-18 and hosted a regional as the third seed in the NCAA Championship.
- Preseason All-SEC First Teamer Kendall Diggs returns as the top qualified hitter with a .299 batting average. He led the team in RBI's a season ago with 63 and is the top home run hitter coming back with 12 long balls.
- Preseason All-American Hagen Smith returns for the Razorbacks to lead the pitching staff, boasting the top ERA (3.64) and most strikeouts (109) while being one of three Hogs to have eight wins. Will McEntire also returns with his eight wins.

SCOUTING THE DUKES

- James Madison returns after putting up a 31-25 overall record in its first season in the Sun Belt, returning a vast majority of its lineup and pitching staff after falling in the Sun Belt tournament.
- Preseason All-Sun Belt selection Fenwick Trimble returns as the top hitter for the Dukes. He led the team in RBI's (52) and home runs (13) and was second on the team last season in batting average with a .342 clip.
- Both pitchers with qualified ERA's return in Ryan Murphy (4.89) and Todd Mozoki (4.89). Murphy led the team in innings pitched (70) and strikeouts (51). He and Matt Kleinfelter won five games each to pace the team, followed by the 14th round selection in last year's MLB Draft, Joe Vogatsky with four.

SERIES HISTORY

- James Madison and Arkansas will meet for the first time ever.

Game Notes
PRESEASON SUN BELT POLL AND HONORS
- James Madison was picked to finish 10th in the league in the preseason poll voted on by the 14 head coaches.
- Fenwick Trimble was selected to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Team after being tabbed to the All-Sun Belt Second Team last season.
IKENBERRY EXTENDED THROUGH 2026
- Earlier this week it was announced that head coach Marlin Ikenberry has been extended through the 2026 season.
- Over his eight seasons at the helm of JMU, Ikenberry has posted a 184-184 record while seeing eight former Dukes sign professional contracts and another 11 drafted in the MLB Draft.
BACK IN THE ‘BURG
- Joe Vogatsky was drafted in the 14th round by the Toronto Blue Jays as the 464th overall pick in the 2023 MLB Draft.
- The senior elected to return for his final season, as he led the team with five saves a season ago.
NEW IN THE DAWG POUND
- The Dukes welcome 15 newcomers to the 2024 squad in four transfers and 11 freshmen.
- The four transfers are Jackson Hull from Walters State CC, Brendan O'Donnell from Rider, Jayden Barroquero from D3 school Muhlenberg and Jack Guerrero from UNCW.
- TJ Brooks is a redshirt freshman and is joined by Kyle Langley, Nic Poole, Griffin Polley, Luke McGrath, Jackson Logar, Lane Duff, Ike Schmidly, Zach Horn, Griffin Madden and Holden McKinney.
GAMES ON THE WORLDWIDE LEADER
- As per the new rule for 2024, all Sun Belt Conference games will be streamed on ESPN+. A Sun Belt game in the rare occurrence may not be streamed if their is an overlap with home softball games.
- Currently, the Dukes will have 22 homes games streamed on ESPN+ and will have the opening series at #3 Arkansas streamed on the SEC Network+.
SIT DOWN (OUT), STAND UP (OUT)
- Transfer Jayden Barroquero brings 95 strikeouts with him from Muhlenberg, including seven games of six or more.
- He boasts two 10+ strikeout games, setting his career-high of 11 against McDaniel last season before tossing 10 against Gettysburg a week later.
DRAFT PROSPECTS IN THE SUN BELT
- Four Dukes have been ranked in the top 40 of draft prospects out of the Sun Belt from both Perfect Game and D1 Baseball.
- Fenwick Trimble (PG #7; D1 #9) and T.R. Williams (PG #15; D1 #36) were both ranked for the 2024 Draft, while Jaden Kinsler (PG #11; D1 #19) and Mike Mancini (D1 #10; PG #13) were ranked for the 2025 Draft.
FACING OFF AGAINST THE SEC
- JMU faces an SEC foe for the first time since 2022.
- The Dukes have previously faced Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina and Tennessee. All but six games against South Carolina were while the teams were active members of the SEC.
- Overall, the Dukes are 4-17 against the five teams combined with a win over Georgia and South Carolina each and a pair of wins against the Vols.

Head Coach - VMI - 2004-14
 Asst. Coach/Recruiting Coordinator - VMI - 2001-2003
 Asst. Coach/Recruiting Coordinator - William & Mary - 1998-2000

IKENBERRY NOTES

- 282 wins is most in VMI history
- VMI's longest-serving head coach
- Led VMI to first three 30-win seasons in program history
- Averaged 25 wins per season at VMI
- 24 players selected to the MLB First Year Player Draft
- 34 wins in 2007 still stands as VMI program record
- School-record 32 wins in 2000 as W&M recruiting coordinator

Completing his eighth season at JMU in 2023, the Dukes finished at 31-25 in their first season in the Sun Belt Conference while winning their most league games since 2011 by going 15-13 in Sun Belt play. Fenwick Trimble and Jack Cone earned All-Sun Belt honors, both being selected to the Second Team, while the team found success at the plate and in the field by having the highest team batting average since 2013 and finishing the season with the second highest fielding percentage in program history. Joe Vogatsky was selected in the 14th round of the 2023 MLB Draft after the season by the Toronto Blue Jays.

In his seventh season at the helm of the program for the 2022 season, the Dukes went 27-26 and won 12 conference games for the most in a season since 2016. Seven Dukes earned All-Conference nods, as Travis Reifsnider and Ryan Dooley were named to the First Team, Liam McDonnell, Chase DeLauter, Kyle Novak and Trevon Dabney earned Second Team honors and Fenwick Trimble and Dooley both earned All-Rookie selections. The seven All-Conference selections were the most JMU has had since 2010. The team also made a jump in their fielding, posting a .971 fielding percentage that is the second highest ever in program history.

From 2020-22, Ikenberry coached Chase DeLauter who went on to be drafted 16th overall in the first round by the Cleveland Guardians in the 2022 MLB Draft. DeLauter becomes the highest ever draft pick in program history.

In 2021 during a shortened season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Dukes went 11-17. Three Dukes were named to All-Conference teams in Chase DeLauter, Conor Hartigan, and Liam Grubbs. Grubbs and Michael Morgan both saw their names be put on watch lists for national awards, and the Dukes were second in the CAA in team hitting. Ikenberry earned his 400th career win on March 14 in a 12-7 win over his alma mater VMI.

In 2020, the Dukes finished with a 10-6 record. All following contests in the 2020 season were canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Dukes had multiple players starting the year off strong, including Chase DeLauter, Justin Showalter, and Nick Zona.

In 2019, the Dukes posted a 31-26 record, becoming the first team since the 2011 season to post a winning record and win more than 30 games. The Dukes landed four players on CAA All-Conference teams. Fox Semones and Nick Robertson led the way for the Dukes, both earning spots on the first-team. Trevon Dabney and Kyle Novak both earned their way onto the third-team and the All-Rookie team for their freshman performances. The Dukes pitching staff also recorded 553 strikeouts on the season to shatter the previous program record.

In 2018, Ikenberry led the Dukes to a 26-26 overall record, marking the best finish since the 2011 campaign. For the second consecutive year, the Dukes landed five players on CAA All-Conference teams. Adam Sisk and Fox Semones led the way, earning spots on the Third Team. Three freshman secured spots on the All-Rookie team in Nick Stewart, Michael Morgan and Josh Jones. The three All-Rookie selections are the most by JMU since 2008.

In 2017, the Dukes matched their win total from the previous year in four fewer games, finishing at 24-27. JMU garnered national attention, receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association poll, and collecting two Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week awards (Brett Johnson - Feb 27, Colton Harlow - March 13). The Dukes placed five players on CAA All-Conference teams, highlighted by Adam Sisk on the All-CAA Second Team. Kevin Kelly and Fox Semones were named Collegiate Baseball Freshmen All-Americans, the first time since 2008 that JMU has had multiple players receive the honor.

Following the 2017 campaign, junior infielder Kyle McPherson and senior pitcher Brandon Withers were each selected in the 2017 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, marking the first time in three years that a JMU player was selected. McPherson was picked up in the 26th round (786th pick overall) by the San Francisco Giants, while Withers went in the 31st round (921st pick) to the Oakland Athletics.

In 2016, his first year at the helm of the JMU, Ikenberry led the Dukes to a 24-31 record, a six-win improvement over the previous season. JMU went 13-11 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish the regular season fourth place in the conference. The Dukes took down Northeastern 3-2 for their first CAA tournament win since 2013. Five players earned All-CAA honors and four were named VaSID All-State, including Ky Parrott, who was First Team for both organizations, while senior reliever Ben Garner signed a free-agent contact with the Los Angeles Angels following the season.

Ikenberry previously served as head coach at Virginia Military Institute from 2004-14, racking up 282 wins, the most in program history, and leading the Keydets to numerous school records.

He departed VMI in 2014 as the Institute's longest-serving head coach and was instrumental in turning around a program that had won more than 20 games just twice in the nine seasons prior to his tenure. In 11 seasons with Ikenberry at the helm, the Keydets dipped below the 20-win mark just twice and posted the first three 30-win seasons in program history.

Prior to being named head coach, Ikenberry served as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at VMI under head coach Tom Slater beginning in 2001. After Slater's departure for a coaching job at the University of Florida, Ikenberry was tabbed to head up the program and the decision paid immediate dividends.

Ikenberry returned to his alma mater for the 2001 season after spending three years at William and Mary as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. In 2000, his final season in Williamsburg, the Tribe racked up a school-record 32 wins. The following year, William and Mary won the only Colonial Athletic Association title in program history.

After guiding the Keydets to 23 wins in 2004 and 27 in 2005, Ikenberry led VMI to 30 victories in 2006 and 34 in 2007, a single-season mark that still stands as the best in program history.

Over the course of his 11 seasons, VMI averaged more than 25 wins per season. Prior to Ikenberry taking the reins, the 25-win 2003 campaign--Ikenberry's third and final year as recruiting coordinator before stepping in as head coach--marked the only time the Keydets had reached that mark in a single season. From 2004-2014, 15 VMI players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

In 2015, Ikenberry served as the Vice President for Business Development at ARMS Software, which develops recruiting, management and scouting software for collegiate athletic departments across the country.

Ikenberry began his collegiate baseball career as a four-year starting catcher for the Keydets. While playing, he developed a reputation for his excellent defensive skills and his handling of the pitching staff. He also caught for former VMI and Major League pitcher Ryan Glynn. He played on VMI's 1993 squad that advanced to the Southern Conference Championship game and ranked third nationally in defense.

A native of Richmond, Va., Ikenberry has two brothers who also attended VMI. Twin brother Merlin Ikenberry was a teammate as a pitcher and designated hitter while his oldest brother Steve Ikenberry is an alum of the class of 1980. Marlin married the former Shannon Marshall in August 2000 and the couple has two sons.
