THIS WEEK IN PILOTS BASEBALL

- The Portland Pilots head to Fayetteville to take on the No. 3 Arkansas Razorbacks in a three-game series.
- They'll play on Friday, March 7 at 1 p.m., Saturday, March 8 at 12 p.m. and Sunday, March 9 at 10 a.m. All times listed on PortlandPilots.com are PST.
- Check PortlandPilots.com for live stats and video options.

LAST TIME OUT

- The Pilots are 5-8 on the season after splitting their series against the Utah Tech Trailblazers at Joe Etzel Field and dropping their game against the Washington Huskies 3-0.
- Portland took the Saturday and Sunday matchups against the Trailblazers while dropping the Friday and Sunday games.
- Five Pilots with 10 at-bats or more posted batting averages of .300 or better through the Utah Tech games, led by freshman Frankie Rutigliano at .400. Cody Nitowitz, Curtis Hebert, Zach Togliano and Brady Bean all posted solid weekends as well.
- Togliano hit the lone home run for Portland last weekend and added two doubles. His 10 total bases led the way as well.
- Brady Bean put together an incredible performance at the plate on Sunday, going 4-for-5 with five RBI's. His hit and RBI totals are the most by a Pilot this season.
- Ryan Rembisz and Kaden Segel were both solid in their starts. Segel went 5.1 innings with just two runs allowed and six strikeouts while Rembisz struck out eight batters in five innings of work with just three runs allowed.
- Trey Swygart was solid in his start against the Huskies, going five innings with just two runs allowed and four strikeouts, but the Pilots couldn't get the bats going.
- Cole Katayama-Stall had three hits in the game, a career-high for the freshman.

THE PERFECT GAME

- On Feb. 25 against the Seattle U Redhawks, Portland lefty Ryan Rembisz threw a perfect game, the first perfect game in program history.
- Rembisz went the full nine innings with no walks, runs or hits allowed, throwing 12 strikeouts in just under 90 pitches.
- The perfect game is the 37th in NCAA Division I history and just the 21st to happen in a nine-inning game. Prior to that game, Rembisz had never pitched more than 4.1 innings.
- Rembisz is the fourth player in Pilot history to throw a no-hitter, the first since 1958 and the only one to do so in nine innings.
- Rembisz is the first WCC player and the 15th in the NCAA to throw a complete game this year. He is the sixth WCC pitcher to two wins this year.
- Rembisz earned WCC Player of the Week honors for his performance as well as NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week and Perfect Game Pitcher of the Week

STANDOUT STATISTICS

- The Pilots lead the WCC in WHIP (1.47), walks allowed per nine innings (4.14) and double plays (11) and rank second in ERA (5.02)
- Offensively Brady Bean is currently second in the WCC in total hits (19).
- On the mound, Ryan Rembisz leads the WCC in hits allowed per nine innings (4.35) and WHIP (0.73), ranks second in wins (two), third in total strikeouts (24), fourth in strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.67) and seventh in ERA (2.18).
- Kaden Segel and Carter Gaston also both stand out for the Pilots. Segel is second in the WCC in walks allowed per nine innings (1.93) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.67) while Gaston is fourth in the conference in ERA (1.69).
- Bean and Cole Katayama-Stall are the only two qualified Pilots (at least 75% of games played and two plate appearances per game) currently batting over .300, hitting .365 and .318 respectively.
- Bean's the only Pilot to have played and started all 13 games and leads the Pilots in total bases (25), total hits and RBI's (13).
- Portland's three starters for the weekend -- Carter Gaston, Kaden Segel and Ryan Rembisz -- are all under a 3.00 ERA entering the weekend.

LAST SEASON FOR THE BLUFF BOYS

- It was a landmark season for the Pilots, who finished the year with a 37-19 record overall and a 19-5 WCC record.
- Their win total last season was the highest in a single season in program history. Their 19 conference wins were the most they've had since joining the WCC and the most in any conference season since 1980.
- The Pilots qualified for the WCC Tournament for the third year in a row and made the WCC Tournament Championship for the second year in a row. They narrowly fell to the San Diego Toreros 8-6 in the championship.
- Despite the loss, Jake Holcroft was named the WCC Tournament Most Outstanding Player, becoming the first Pilot to ever win the award. Spencer Scott and Brady Bean each made the All-WCC Tournament Team.
- The Pilots had 10 players earn All-WCC honors this year, with Carter Gaston winning WCC Pitcher of the Year.
- Gaston is just the fourth Pilot to win a major conference award and the second to win WCC Pitcher of the Year in the last three seasons.
- Gaston made the All-WCC First Team along with Nick Brink, Jake Holcroft. Sam Stuhr made the All-WCC Second Team, Tanner Douglas, Tyler Howard, Spencer Scott and Jack Thomson earned honorable mention and Morgan Codron made the freshman team.
- Gaston posted an 11-2 record with a 3.01 ERA, both of which ranked first in the conference. He ranked fifth nationally in wins, and conference-wise he was also fourth in WHIP (1.18) and fifth in walks allowed per nine innings (2.45).

- Brink threw 139 strikeouts, which led the conference by a wide margin and ranked sixth nationally. Brink, who posted a 3.61 ERA with a 10-4 record, led the conference in strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.65, 16th nationally), walks allowed per nine innings (2.08), WHIP (1.08) and complete games (two, 12th nationally), being the only WCC pitcher to throw multiple complete games in a season since 2015.
- Brink was drafted in the seventh round by the Miami Marlins in the 2025 MLB Draft.
- Holcroft led the conference in total hits (81), hits per game (1.45), steals (21) and runs (62). He was also second in runs per game (1.11) and fourth in RBI's (59).
- Holcroft's hit total was the third most by any Pilot in a season, his RBI total was the third highest and his runs scored total was tied for the most in any single season.
- Patacsil batted a WCC-leading .384 on the season with 68 hits, seven home runs and 49 RBI's. In conference play alone, Patacsil batted an astounding .524 -- over 100 points better than the next closest WCC batter -- while posting the most hits (44), the best on-base percentage (.587) and the second-most RBI's (35).
- Stuhr threw 100 strikeouts with a 3-2 record and a 4.61 ERA. His 100 strikeouts ranked second in the WCC, along with his strikeouts per nine innings total (11.25).
- Stuhr was taken in the fifth round of the 2024 MLB Draft 137th overall by the Oakland Athletics, becoming the highest drafted Pilot since Kory Cast was taken 87th overall by the Montreal Expos in 2003.
- Douglas led the WCC in saves and ranked 14th nationally at 10 and posted a perfect 4-0 record with a 3.32 ERA. He was also named to the watch list for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year, an award that goes to the top reliever in college baseball
- Howard batted .331 on the year with 45 hits, 11 doubles, three home runs and 20 RBI's. He was the only Pilot to post at least three games of four hits or more and had 12 multi-hit games as well as five multi-RBI games.
- Scott hit .316 on the year with 49 hits, 11 doubles, three home runs and 27 RBI's. Scott was named to the WCC All-Tournament Team after batting .538 with seven hits, six runs scored, two RBI's and a double.
- In 41 games, Thomson batted .208 with 26 hits, five home runs and 21 RBI's. Four of those home runs and 17 of those RBI's came against WCC opponents, and his on-base percentage of .482 against conference opponents ranked fifth.
- Codron, a redshirt freshman, made 16 appearances with three starts for Portland, posting a 1-1 record with a 4.63 ERA and three saves.
- Along with Brink and Stuhr, Joey Gartrell was taken in the 15th round by the Boston Red Sox.

PRESEASON HONORS

- The Portland Pilots were picked second in the annual WCC Preseason Poll, receiving one first place vote. It's the second year in a row the Pilots were picked to finish second.
- Three Pilots were picked to the All-WCC Preseason Team: infielders Spencer Scott and Zach Toglia and pitching ace Carter Gaston.
- Scott and Gaston both earned All-WCC nods while Toglia, an All-WCC First Team selection in 2023, brought the power to the plate, hitting 10 home runs. Toglia is the first Pilot since Kory Casto to have back-to-back seasons of 10 home runs or more.
- In the D1 Baseball Season Preview for the WCC, Portland was picked to finish second in the conference with a chance to push for the NCAA Regional.
- Gaston was picked as the favorite for WCC Pitcher of the Year while freshman Trey Swygart was highlighted as a potential Freshman of the Year.
- Gaston became the second Pilot ever to be named a Preseason All-American, making the NCBWA Preseason All-American Second Team. He's the second under Geoff Loomis.
- Toglia, as well as pitcher Morgan Codron, were named top 25 prospects for the 2025 MLB draft, with Codron slotting in at 19th and Toglia at 22nd.

KEY RETURNERS

- The Pilots return 19 players from last year's squad. Four of those players earned All-WCC honors last year: Gaston (Pitcher of the Year, First Team), Howard (Honorable Mention), Scott (Honorable Mention) and Codron (Freshman Team).
- Four regular starters in the field return along with eight pitchers from last season
- Along with Scott and Toglia, Jace Miller and Jonas Salk are set to be important fixtures in the infield. Miller, a redshirt sophomore, played in just 10 games last year, batting .263 with six RBI's, while Salk played in 50 with 46 starts.
- Salk batted .262 with four home runs and 31 RBI's. He was hit by 18 pitches last season, tied for the second most by a Pilot in a single season and good for third in the WCC.
